Queen Anne's County Report

Queen Anne's County is widely known for the US Route 50/301 corridor and as a prime, affordable location within an hour drive to major Mid-Atlantic cities. The majority of the county population and its commercial and industrial base are located on Kent Island, which serves as a land bridge between the Chesapeake Bay and the Kent Narrows, a navigable channel connecting the Chester River with the Bay. Centreville, the county seat, is pivotal as a commercial center between the rural, agricultural economy of the north and the developed commercial area to the south.<sup>1</sup>

The county is home to over 1,400 businesses employing over 12,000 people.<sup>2</sup> Major employers include Corsica Hills Center, Friel Lumber, and Safeway.<sup>3</sup>

Census of Population and Housing: There are two versions of the Census questionnaire: a short form which asks a limited number of population and housing questions of all households, and a long form questionnaire which asks additional social and economic questions of a sample of all households. The user should note that data obtained from a sample are subject to sampling variability, and that there are limitations to many of these data.

Regulations allow a family child care provider to care for as many as eight children at any time. (OCC)
